#100ALUMNI OUR ALUMNI LOOK BACK

“ Being a part of Evanston Scholars has been life-changing for me. I am a member of the pioneer class of 2012, so seeing the program grow and evolve over the years is super special.” –Andrea Edwards, Marquette University ‘16, B.A. Writing-Intensive English ”

“ It means a lot knowing that I was given the opportunity to be the first in my family to get a Bachelor’s degree. I hope that being part of the #100Alumni will help show and inspire others like me to pursue higher education.” –Cherese Waight, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign ‘20, B.S. Psychology ”

“ Being a part of #100Alumni and Evanston Scholars means that I am part of a group of like-minded individuals who worked hard, persevered, and successfully graduated from a four-year college. We made it happen! –Guadalupe Herrera, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign ‘20, B.S. Speech and Hearing Sciences ”

“ Seeing the reach that has been created and growth since I’ve been in the program is absolutely amazing to me. I’m very proud to have been able to be a part of such an amazing community of Scholars and mentors alike.” –Whitcliff Roberts, Lewis University ‘18, B.S. Aviation Maintenance Technology and M.S. Aviation and Transportation Studies ”

“ Being a part of #100Alumni—being a college graduate and a person of color—we are changing what professionalism looks like. I hope a couple of years from now we’ll be able to say 500, 1000...I hope Evanston Scholars continues to grow because it’s made such a big impact on all our lives.” –Kadian Dixon, Colgate University ‘18, B.S. Biology ”
